

The Print Studio presents:

FREE ADMISSION

An Artist Talk with Sandra Brewster

FRIDAY OCTOBER 8th James North Art Crawl: 7:30pm (in the Upper Level Studio)

The artist will provide an overview of her mixed media drawing based practice, highlighting her recent work from the current exhibition (RE)Visions at the Print Studio.

About the artist

Sandra Brewster is a Toronto-based artist who holds a BFA from York University. Her artistic practice speaks of the experiences of those whose identities are formed in Canada and roots lie elsewhere. Her art is influenced by notions of displacement, longing and home. She has exhibited her work extensively in Toronto at venues including the Women's Art Resource Centre and A Space Gallery. She has also exhibited her work internationally at FiveMyles in Brooklyn NY, the South African Nation Gallery in Cape Town, South Africa, and the Museo de Arte Moderno in Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic. She has received grants from the Ontario Arts Council, the Toronto Arts Council and the Canada Council for the Arts. Brewster is represented by the XEXE Gallery in Toronto.
